

This is the height of hypocrisy, considering this same group refused to air Nightline for it being so-called political to honor our brave fallen troops.